

TIMOTHY OULTON

PUFFY CHAIR

Armchairs

Inspired by the iconic and eternally stylish feather-filled puffer jackets that evolved from utilitarian winter wear to grace the catwalks year after year. A grid of plush upholstery offers the ultimate comfort, filled with the softest down-like fibre, and quilted in sumptuous Black Nappa leather, the most premium leather in our collection. Used in the luxury fashion industry, Nappa is a full grain lambskin leather, hallmarked by its beautifully soft hand feel. The leather is unaltered by sanding and buffing, retaining its original surface and natural marks, making it one of the most authentic leather pieces available. Envelop yourself in Puffy and experience the epitome of cosy chic.
