VEG WOOD BLOCK

Ottomans & Footstools

Inspired by old vegetable and butcher's blocks that were traditionally used for cutting during food preparation. The blocks are handmade using a variety of reclaimed timbers such as elm, pine, okan, bingtangor, mahogany and sycamore. The wood has been salvaged from old buildings across rural China, and due to the ambiguity of each piece's distinct heritage, we have collectively named these timbers Ceena, which means 'supper'.
