ALABASTER RING SMALL PENDANT

Ceiling Lights

Handcrafted from a halo of natural alabaster, the Alabaster Ring pendant serenely floats like a mesmerizing planetary ring in the night sky. Prized for its snow-white colour, alabaster was often used by the ancient Egyptians in sarcophaguses, temples, and most notably, sculptures. The stone is translucent, radiating a gentle, ethereal glow, with earthy black and brown markings often visible in the stone. Each pendant is carved entirely from one single, giant alabaster stone, and then polished to achieve a beautifully smooth surface.
