JUNCTION MARBLE

Classic styling meets Mediterranean cool with the Junction Marble coffee table, bringing a sense of calm and refinement to your living room. Smooth planes of luminous white marble catch the light beautifully, with a rich tracery of natural veining giving unique character to each piece. Marble's naturally porous surface will develop its own patina with use and wear, etched with its own story over time.

This coffee table could also be used outdoors in covered areas with some protection from the elements, to add a touch of glamour to al fresco entertaining.
