PORTOBELLO

Putting your feet up has never looked so good with the Portobello chair, a modern and stylish antidote to traditional motion chairs. Designed with a hidden electric motion function, Portobello reclines fully so you can stretch out weary legs and completely relax after a stressful day. A slightly higher back supports the neck and reclines for the perfect laid-back position, with slim side arms creating a more compact and contemporary feel. Clad in Buff Burnished leather, combining a classic vintage style with a burnished finish and rich depth of colour. Named after London's famous Portobello Road for its chilled and relaxed vibe, Timothy Oulton's Portobello is your own private haven to unwind in.
